

RiverView Clinic In Mankato is looking for a license eligible doctoral level psychologist. Skills for working with children and their families is key. Preference will be given to those candidates that have neuropsychological testing backgrounds. Generalist skills for working with adults is important. Supervision for licensure will be provided as part of the employment package.

Mankato is a picturesque river valley town with many big city amenities surrounded by rural life. It is 90 minutes from the Twin Cities.

RiverView Clinic is a group private practice that has been in operation for more than 20 years. All the clinicians have generalist skills with individual areas of expertise. For more information check out our website: www.riverviewclinic.com. Please send your vita to: employment@riverviewclinic.com.